THINGS THEATRICAL.

Dorothy Tennant, who first played the title role with "The College Widow," has been re-engaged for the part.

The pony ballet, with James T. Powers in "The Blue Moon" at the New York Casino, has entered to compete for the $200 prize offered by the world's fair, Dublin, next May.

Henry Miller's staging of "The Light Eternal" at the Majestic theater, New York, has won for him the most unqualified praise and proves anew his consummate ability as a producer.

Eddy Chapman, who impersonates the pagan princess in "The Light Eternal" at the Majestic theater, New York, was leading lady of the Neill stock company during the past nine years.

Richard Harding Davis has reached a point in his career where he can write a play with the same facility that marks his work in literature. His most recent contribution to the stage is "The Galloper."

The latest recruits to the independent forces are Joseph and W. W. Jefferson, sons of the late Joseph Jefferson. The Jeffersons have been appearing since the opening of the season in syndicate houses in a play by Hartley Davis.

INDUSTRIAL ITEMS.

A ton of old rags is worth $50. The women of Basel, Switzerland, are among the ablest ribbon makers in the world.

The use of concrete already has thrown thousands of stone masons and cutters out of work throughout the country. In some large cities whole buildings have been constructed of the material.

The genuine black finish for iron or steel, which is the dead black mat finish so popular with the dark oak of the present day, is produced by heating the articles to redness in an atmosphere of steam. The result is the formation of black oxide of iron, a permanent, durable finish.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during the illness and death of our mother, James Edwards, William Edwards, Arthur Edwards, John Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. David D. Smith.

In the Shakespearean recitals of Frederic M. Blanchard, something unique is offered in the realm of education and entertainment. Without the use of the atrial effects, Mr. Blanchard gets up a stage in the minds of his hearers, where on are boiled forth the men and women of Shakespeare's brain. In offering this work to the public, Mr. Blanchard confidently appeals not only to the students of Shakespeare, but to educators in general and to all lovers of pure entertainment. He will appear in Barre Friday evening of this week, the entertainment being for the public library.

GOOD DRUGS

FOR MID-WINTER INDISPOSITION.

THE first essential is freshness of the Drug or Chemical used in compounding Prescriptions. The quality of the Drugs should never come in question. The BEST or NONE is our motto, and in strictly adhering to this principle all danger from that source is avoided. Is it likely we would jeopardize our reputation by using anything but the best obtainable? Our label upon any bottle, box or package is full guarantee in this respect. Drugs must be GOOD and FRESH or nothing.

are bringing fancy prices. Early spring pullets should be "cackling" these warm days. If they are not, why not? Experienced poultrymen say theirs are. The reason that theirs are producing eggs is that they are giving their hens plenty of "Page's Poultry Food," also ground green "Alfalfa," Meat Meal, Mica Crystal Grit, Cracked Bone, Oyster Shells, Sunflower Seed, etc., all of which we carry in full stock, at the lowest prices for the best grades. Also have in stock "Weare's Poultry Powder," "Empire Egg Food," "Columbian Condition Powder," "Lord's Prolific Poultry Powder, etc."
